Contributions to Steve Ferrara for Congress are not tax deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions by corporations, foreign nationals, and federal government contractors are prohibited. The maximum an individual may contribute is $2,700 for the primary election plus $2,700 for the general election, equaling a total maximum contribution of $5,400. This maximum sum can be donated at one time and can be donated prior to the primary election. Couples may contribute a maximum of $5,400 in the primary election plus $5,400 in the general election, for a total maximum of $10,800 even if only one spouse has income. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions exceed $200 in an election cycle. Steve Ferrara is a retired member of the Navy. Use of his military rank, job titles, & photographs in uniform does not imply endorsement from the Department of Defense or the Navy.
